

Bauer Selects JACOB PIVONKA (2000) commits to Notre Dame

Notre Dame head coach Jeff Jackson has secured a verbal commitment from one of the top 2000's in the country. Jacob Pivonka, a 2000-birth year, pledged to Notre Dame.

"Jake is one of the top 2000's in the country who is an all-out, all the time player" said Bauer coach Kevin Mann. "He has the maturity, size, skill, speed, and the highest compete level to go along with it. Jake's highly competitive nature with a never quit mentality separates him from a lot of good hockey players. Outside of Jake's athletic frame his stick skills and superb shot release makes him a goal-scoring threat every game."

The Bauer Selects would like to congratulate Jake and his parents (Mike and Renata) on this opportunity to a future D1 career with the University of Notre Dame.
